

Troop 85 Happenings

Changes Among us
It's time for new roles and responsibilities for some of our Scouts. Let's all lend a supportive hand to our new "Senior Leaders"!

FEBRUARY 2009

New Scouts

We would like to welcome

Robert (179) Alex (199) Cooper (179)

Eric (179) Nick (199) Richard (199)

Rudy (679) Derek (679)

TCC

The Troop Committee Challenge was held by Mrs. Anderson, which allowed her to complete one of her Woodbage tickets. Those attending were:

Kim Leleniewski, Dave Mueller, Kitty Mueller, Dennis O'Brien and Kermit Ruoss.

This course allowed Mrs. Mueller, Mr. O'Brien, and Mrs. Leleniewski to become Trained Leaders.

Law Day

Recently, Michael Emch went to Law Merit Badge Day. Below is a recap of how he spent the day.

Law merit badge day went smoothly. First we were divided into groups to view the courthouse, coroner's office, and the jail. I was in group #3 so we did these things in the order listed above. In the courthouse we got to see the judge's chamber and the back rooms. At the coroner's office we saw the office section, and then we went through the Toxicology lab. After this we went into the operating room (no body) we saw some drug paraphernalia and were instructed not to touch. After that we went to the jail. We were able to see the inmates and talk to the guy in charge. Then we went back to our room. We talked about ancient laws and what law is. Then we had lunch. After lunch we had our mock trial where I sat in the jury. A crime was committed in front of us and then we began the trial. The jury deliberated an after that we went back to the main room. We wrapped things up and that was all. It was fun and I would suggest it to anyone.
